Elizabeth City, N. C., March 24 .-The verdict that young Wilcox was guilty of the murder of Miss Nellie Cropsey, seems to have met popular approval, though it was not considered probable, early Saturday, that the jury would so report. District Attorney Ward said he never looked for any verdict other than murder in the second degree. Lawver Avdlett, for the defense, will enter an appeal on behalf of the prisoner. He will seek to set aside the verdiet on the ground that it was not consistent with the evidence brought out in the trial. There is little prospect of the prisoner's paying the death penalty on the date set by Judge Jones. As the supreme court does not meet tiil next September it is more than probable that it will be 12 months before the case is disposed of finally.

The Prosecution In the Case Closed and the Defense Begun. Conducted By Capt. Marix.

Manila, March 23.—The prosecution in the trial by court-martial of Maj. Littleton W. T. Waller, of the marine corps, on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, is closed. Capt. Arthur T. Marix, of the marine corps, representing Maj. Waller, opened the defense by promising to show five things-the work of the firing party, the nature of Maj. Waller's services in Samar the treacherous character of the natives, the conditions at the base and Maj. Waller's status there, and that the executions were necessary, lawful and justifiable.

Capt. David D. Porter, of the marine corps, testified that he was present when Gen. Smith gave Maj. Waller his orders, which Mai. Waller never exceeded. At the outset Maj. Waller warned his command that they were opposed by a treacherous, brave and savage foe, and that all treachery should be punished with death, and closed with an appeal to the command to remember the fate of their old China comrades of the Ninth infantry and avenge them.

London, March 24.-The news that the wandering Boer "government" had entered the British lines is renamely, that another attempt is being made to negotiate peace. The fact that the censor passed the news of this movement is accepted as confirmation of this opinion. Nothing is actually known here of the intentions of Messrs. # THE SUBSIDY BILL INIQUITY.

Nothing But a Giaring Attempt by Monopolists at Class Leg-Inlation.

Senator Foraker made the somewhat remarkable statement the other day that he was opposed to the subsidizing of special interests, but would make an exception in the case of the ship subsidy bill because he thought it would result in the accomplishment of the purposes indicated in the title of the measure. In other words, says the Detroit Free Press, he looked upon the principle as wrong and pernicious, out fell back upon the dangerous doctrine that the end justifies the means. Senators Allison, of Iowa, and Spooner, of Wisconsin cannot thus easily reconcile themselves to the demands of party polities. They are not satisfied with the bill, and we fail to comprehend how any number of amendments can attract them to its support. It is based upon a false hypothesis, and one that antagonizes the very essence of our institutions. The laws of a num-Krough, with their secretaries and ber of states against trusts were recently nullified because they discriminated in favor of certain interests, tution. Wau Mu Lun is a porgressive train from Balmoral, about fifty and were thus voldable because of class legislation.

It has been shown beyond controversy that the bill under consideration is a glaring attempt at class legisation. As pointed out in the able address of Senator Clay, of Missouri, there are tens of thousands engaged in meritorious industries, farmers and manufacturers, who are losing money or barely making ends meet. It is as incumbent upon the government to give them means to promote their undertakings as to subsidize the shipbenefit. As for that it would be easier to defend a wholesale distribution of money, taxed from the people, to assist languishing domestic interests than to vindicate under false preapproach of Mr. Schafk-Burger and tenses a gift of undetermined millions to a monopoly of maritime operators. It is unwarranted to assume from the number of questions being asked most hopeless and that Mr. Schalk- and amendments offered by them that the two leading senators will eventually frame a subsidy bill that they will support. Their objection is fundamental and opposed to the subsidy upon any terms or conditions. They questioned Frve, one of the authors of the bill, and forced admissions of lack garded as having but one meaning, of information on his part until he grew peevish and was relieved of torture as a matter of senatorial courtesy. They put Senator Hanna where he had to side step and spar for time. Senator Depew had to apologize for mistaken statements under misinformation. The very fact that those who prepared the bill and are backing it are not informed as to the material evidence bearing upon it, and give nothing but speculative estimates as to the outcome: that they propose to leave out in the cold the smaller vessels that are doing the bulk of the trade upon our Atlantic scaboard, suggests a selfish impetus behind the movement.

The Married Man Gets the Preference & & &

By CHARLES M. SCHWAB. President of the United States Steel Corporation.

UITE well I realize that I take a very strong position when I say, speaking as an employer: "I am in favor of the married man."

ALL THINGS BEING EQUAL THE MARRIED MAN IS A BETTER EMPLOYE THAN THE SINGLE MAN. I GIVE HIM THE PREFERENCE ALWAYS. The great majority of employers do.

The responsibilities of the married manhis wife, children, home-strengthen his character, steady him, make him more anxious to succeed, urge him in his ambitions. He works for the happiness of his wife and little children. The thought of them lightens his labor and makes him cheerful at his task.

NOW I KNOW ALL THIS BECAUSE I AM A MARRIED MAN MYSELF. I know that when I married-and on a very small salary, too-I realized at once my new responsibilities and these made me more determined than ever to succeed. I knew that as a single man failure would have affected myself alone. Now there was the comfort and well being of another to provide for. Every married man of character feels the same way.

EMPLOYERS AS A CLASS KNOW THIS.

"Married?" they say to an applicant for a position. "Children?" they ask. And straightway they give that job to the wife and babies. So that marriage is a good investment. It does more than improve the man himself, it acts as a letter of recommendation. For there is considerable chivalry in the business man of the twentieth century-a very practical chivalry that says to him: "Here's a chance to make a whole family happy," and he usually avails himself of that

Marry just as soon as you can, young man-when you are certain of your ability to support your wife-and take my word for it, you will not regret the step. You will be amazed how your wife will aid you in all your efforts. YOU MAY THINK YOU ARE IN-TERESTED IN YOUR WORK AT PRESENT, BUT OF COURSE, YOU DO NOT KNOW WHAT REAL INTEREST IN WORK IS UNTIL YOU GET MARRIED.

All this, of course, presupposes that you marry a sensible woman, one to whom you have explained fully your condition in life, one who will help you to achieve your ambitions. In this class are not included social butterflies. I should hesitate to recommend an investment of the latter characters.
